Kildare CMWS Club Rules

2023 - 2024

- Full Club fees are due from the start of the season. A schedule of payments may be discussed with the Treasurer if any member wishes to spread the amount (over up to three payments)

- Full Club membership is the 1st preference followed by full payment of membership amount (less the BI reg fee - where a player is registered to BI through a different club).

- Receipt of a nightly fee is discouraged after 2 nights of trial at the club nights.

- Club membership applications will be assessed by committee with priority given in order to applicants from Kildare Town, County Kildare and Leinster.

- On Club nights, at least two courts will be kept for Club play regardless of match schedules.

- Club set up and games on Club Nights will be organised by a random selection system.

- Team selections are the responsibility of the committee. Teams will be entered in Southwest leagues and cups.

- TEAM CAPTAINS are responsible
  - for ensuring all team members are notified in advance of matches - have score sheets and shuttles for each game.
  - for negotiating any changes in their team match schedule in conjunction with the Club Match Secretary
  - for collecting €5 from team members for home matches and ensuring all lights are off and hall locked up.
  - for organising the match supper for after any home matches that their team is playing - they must also ensure that everything is tidied up before they leave.
  - for returning the Match Score Sheet to the relevant League Office as stated on the sheet and notifying Match Secretary of the result.

- All Club members are expected to treat other Club members, visitors and their property with respect both on and off the court.

- All Club members are expected to abide by the ethics of fair play on court at all times.

- All members are expected to keep the Club area tidy for the duration of the Club so that there is no mess to cleanup at the end of the night.

Complaints related to the organisation of the Club or other members must be put in writing to the Secretary for discussion by the Club Committee
